Continuation Sheet (PTOL-303) 09/939,997

Application No.

Continuation of 2. NOTE: The proposed amendment will not be entered because the amendments raise new issues that would require further consideration and/or search. Specifically, in claims 1 and 9, the amendment that the register element is in a plate cylinder and that the upper clamping rail is movable relative to the clamping element in a peripheral direction of the plate cylinder raises a new issue.
